Guidelines for Proceedings Submissions

Thank you to all the contributors for the Proceedings of the 20th Annual College of Languages, Linguistics & Literature Graduate Student Conference. Please read the following and revise your paper accordingly.

1. Submit this form with your personal information and to notify the Chief Editor that you will be submitting your work to be published in the Proceedings of the 20th Annual College of Languages, Linguistics & Literature Graduate Student Conference. You must complete the form by Wednesday, June 15, 2016.

2. Submit the electronic version of your work to lllconf@hawaii.edu in MS Word, rtf (rich text format), or compatible. Symbol and font files, if used, should be included in the e-mail as well. Your paper should follow the Proceedings’ formatting requirements. In order to do so, please use the Proceedings’ style sheet.

   Your paper should be no longer than 12 pages (including references and appendices) and should conform to the APA or MLA reference style. If your discipline regularly includes abstracts in articles, you may do so. Your abstract should not exceed 100 words.

   Submission of your paper is due by midnight on Thursday, June 30, 2016.

3. Include a brief biography of yourself, with your major noted. Your biography should not exceed 75 words.

If any information changes at any point after your initial submission and before the Proceedings are published, please contact the Chief Editor via the conference email (lllconf@hawaii.edu). The Proceedings may take as long as a year to be published. If the editors cannot locate you at any point during the various stages of the editing and printing processes, your paper may not be published. Thus, it is vital to keep the editors aware of any changes in your contact information until you receive your copy of the Proceedings.

The Proceedings will be an electronic publication and will be archived in ScholarSpace.