INTERN AT THE SMITHSONIAN
FALL 2009 INTERNSHIPS IN WASHINGTON, DC

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR MĀNOA STUDENTS

Through the generosity of the following three scholarship benefactors, the Colleges of Arts and Sciences are able to provide substantial financial support for student internships in Washington, DC at the Smithsonian Institution:

- The Sarah and Francis Sogi Smithsonian/Hawai‘i Fellow Internship
- The National Capital Region Chapter of the University of Hawai‘i Alumni Association Scholarship
- The Hiram L. Fong Endowment in Arts and Sciences

Eligibility

- Declared Arts and Sciences major
- Undergraduate
- Hawai‘i resident and U.S. citizen
- For the Sogi internship, student must have taken at least one Ethnic Studies class at UH-M  noa

Application Process

Please submit 5 complete and collated copies of the following:

- Completed scholarship application form (available in Bilger 101)
- 2 letters of recommendation from professors/instructors familiar with your academic abilities
- a 1,000 word essay describing your internship interests, especially as they relate to your academic and professional goals. Your essay should offer evidence of your capacity for independent work (e.g., leadership positions held, research conducted), and address how your internship will benefit the community of Hawai‘i in general
- current transcript of university-level academic work, including transfer course work

Please note

- Finalists must be available for an on-campus interview
- Selectees must also apply and be accepted into a Smithsonian internship

For further information about these scholarships, call (808) 956-8516

For information about the Smithsonian Institution, visit their website: www.si.edu

Deadline for applications: February 17, 2009