Learn about the evolutionary chain of documents.

Learn about the tools used to discover documents in that chain.

Learn how to use those tools.

We’ll start today.
What are the tools used to discover the documents in the chain?

- Bibliographies
  subject bibliographies published as books, end of article or book bibliographies online subject bibliographies
- Print and online indexes to the literature general (e.g. Academic Search Premier) specialized (e.g. Linguistics & Language Behavior Abstracts) citation indexes (e.g. Web of Science)
- Library catalogs (e.g. Hawaii Voyager, WorldCat, Library of Congress)
- Open access archives/e-print servers (e.g. CogPrints)
- Institutional repositories (e.g. Hong Kong U of Science & Technology)
- WWW search engines (e.g. Google Scholar, Scirus)

Information in Databases

When you search an index, you will only find out about documents from the publications the index producer chooses to index. When you search a library catalog, you will find items owned by the library or libraries.

- basic publication information for indexed documents (author, title, date and publication name)
- basic publication information for book, video, journal subscription – and location in library

How do you find journals through the library?

1. Go to Hawaii Voyager Library Catalog at http://uhmanoa.lib.hawaii.edu/

2. Select Basic Search to find a known item.
   Title browse, author browse, journal title browse

3. Select Guided Search to find books about a topic
   (Think broadly when choosing search terms)

   Want books only from Manoa?
   Limit the location to UH Manoa: All Collections.

   What more books like the one you just found?
   Click on a subject heading to bring you to other books on the same topic. Or use part of the Subject Heading to launch a new search.

   Want a book that’s checked out?
   Recall the book at the circulation counter, or get a copy from another UH library through IntraSystem Loan.

How do you find journals through the library?

1. Go to Hawaii Voyager Library Catalog at http://uhmanoa.lib.hawaii.edu/

2. Select Basic Search

3. Search by Journal Title

4. Type the title of the journal in the search box – if it begins with a “the”, drop it!

5. Ask for help if you don’t understand what you find.

Remember: look for journal articles in an INDEX - not the library catalog!
Search an index first, then check the Voyager Library Catalog to see if the library owns a copy.

What if the Library does not own the journal?
(1) Check the E-Resources gateway to see if it is in one of our full-text databases.
(2) Interlibrary Loan the article at https://illiad.manoa.hawaii.edu/login/
How do you find full-text documents online?

1. Go to the UH Manoa Library’s homepage at http://library.manoa.hawaii.edu

2. Select E-Resources & Databases

3. Browse Databases & Indexes in: Humanities/Business/SocialScience

4. Or search for the name of a database you know (e.g. Psycinfo)

5. Or search for a journal name to find out we have access to it in fulltext.

How do you find working papers? …conference proceedings?

1. Go to Hawaii Voyager Library Catalog at http://uhmanoa.lib.hawaii.edu/

2. Use keyword searching for phrases.

3. Can’t find it? Use InterLibrary Loan - make a photocopy or document request for individual papers for speedier delivery.

Looking for dissertations/theses in the library catalog (Hawaii Voyager)?
Do a keyword search by “thes?” and [any word]"

Looking for the fulltext of a dissertation/thesis published after 1996?
Search the Dissertations & Theses database thru e-Resources.
If UH doesn’t have the document you need?

1. Fill out an InterLibrary Loan form at https://iliad.manoa.hawaii.edu/login/

2. Request it directly from a database like Worldcat (for books).

3. Request it directly from a database like LLBA with find it

4. Contact author of document directly.
