

FILIPINO 101 (Beginning Filipino) Filipino

Taglagas [Fall] 2009

Unibersidad ng Hawaii sa Manoa

COURSE SYLLABUS

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION: Filipino 101 [Beginning Filipino] is an introduction to the Filipino language as a tool for communication in simple social situations. Emphases are on developing the four language skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing. However, the course will focus on speaking and listening skills as foundation in the beginner's program. The course will pay close attention to the sounds of the Filipino language, including intonation and stress, as well as vocabulary and simple grammatical structures. The course will present different social situations which involves the turntaking skills, courtesies, and initiating and ending a communication exchange.

One hour of the required four hours of instruction per week will be devoted to authentic out-of-classroom practice with instructional supervision by the instructor. Students must participate in a minimum of 16 hours/semester of co-curricular language and cultural events and maintain a portfolio of participation that will be pre-approved, authenticated, and evaluated by Filipino Program faculty.

B. PURPOSE AND ORGANIZATION: This course is designed for beginning level students. It will involve a combination of classroom and Internet sessions, individual and group activities, and required time in the Katipunan Club.

C. COURSE OBJECTIVES / LEARNING OUTCOMES: At the end of the course, the learners should be able to demonstrate their level of proficiency in the four language skills [speaking, listening, reading and writing] and specific communication situations. Specifically, the learners should be able to:

1. Understand conversations about everyday experiences [examples: school, work, interests, preferences]
2. Sustain conversations / interviews about self, family, experiences, interests, and preferences
3. Get main ideas from authentic everyday practical materials written entirely in the target language [examples: menus, ads for products]
4. Meet practical writing needs and social demands by writing paragraph-length personal letters, message, applications, and journals
